

MACDONALD
HOUSTON HOUSE
★★★★

FIRST FOR BUSINESS

If you want to create a lasting impression, hold your conference at Houstoun House. The hotel's seclusion is a great advantage. With no outside distractions, delegates can concentrate on the matter in hand, whether it's a management meeting, seminar or full-scale presentation. We have a variety of rooms, including the purpose-built Dower House which will accommodate up to 130 and the Houstoun Suite which seats up to 400 (theatre style), both offer a complete range of audiovisual equipment.

DINING AND BANQUETING

Our restaurant offers the best of Scottish fayre where only fresh produce is used. Our renowned AA award winning chef carefully selects the menu which can be complemented by our extensive cellar of wines, creating a dining room which is regarded as being one of the finest in Scotland. Houstoun House can offer a variety of rooms for private dining events, and banquets can be arranged for groups from 20 to 250.

LEISURE

Houstoun House Hotel has a multimillion-pound Leisure Club. With state of the art equipment and highly trained staff always on hand, it is the perfect environment to improve your fitness or relax. Whether it's in our 18-metre swimming pool, sauna, steam room, gymnasium, outdoor tennis court or beauty room.

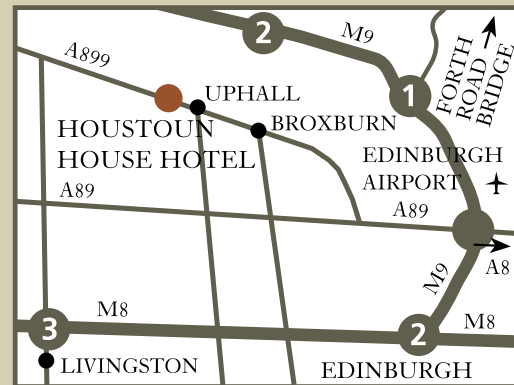

TEAM BUILDING

If your organisation recognises the value of good employee camaraderie, then why not try our team building courses, from laser clay and archery to remote controlled cars and fun inflatable games. We can tailor make courses, which develop specific skills, promote leadership or just provide a day of fun. This all takes place within our own grounds and we can offer packages to include all meals in the hotel as well as use of our leisure club.

ACCOMMODATION AND FACILITIES

At Houstoun House we feel that a comfortable night's sleep contributes to a productive meeting. We can't take the credit for the peaceful surrounding but we think you will appreciate our beautiful rooms. There are seventy one in total all of which are en-suite, have a colour television with satellite TV, direct dial telephone, iron and ironing board, hospitality tray and trouser press.
