Photography

Crathes is an enchanting 16th-century tower house, reminiscent of the great French châteaux, surrounded by 240 hectares of formal gardens and rolling Scottish countryside.

Entertain guests in the majestic Great Hall, a room which has hosted kings and queens across the centuries; a room steeped in myth and legend, and dominated by its high vaulted ceiling and impressive stone fireplace, above which hangs the ancient Horn of Leys, a gift from King Robert the Bruce in 1323.

The newly refurbished Courtyard Restaurant and Conference Suite offer a variety of options for both day and evening entertaining; from champagne receptions and banquets to barbeques and ceilidh dances. With excellent business facilities, including WiFi and the latest audio-visual technology, the Conference Suite is ideal for meetings, training and team building events.

Your Ideal Venue for...

Mar Lodge Estate

5 miles west of Braemar, Royal Deeside...

Built as a Victorian hunting lodge for the Duke and Duchess of Fife in 1895, Mar Lodge is situated in the heart of the Cairngorms National Park. Surrounded by 29,000 hectares of some of the most remote and scenic wild land in Scotland, the estate is recognised as one of the most important nature conservation landscapes in the British Isles, containing 15 Munros and four of the five highest mountains in the UK.

With accommodation for 29 guests within the Lodge, Mar Lodge is perfect for corporate retreats, private meetings, incentives and conferences.

Team building activities range from traditional field sports - stag stalking, grouse shooting and salmon fishing – to ranger-led walks, clay pigeon shooting and archery.

The Lodge's spacious and elegant public rooms are ideal for drinks receptions and dinners. A short stroll of the Lodge is the Stag Ballroom, a unique timber building displaying 2,500 stag antlers dating from the Victorian era. With its spacious wooden floor, the ballroom is perfect for sumptuous banquets and ceilidhs.

Robert Burns Birthplace Museum

Birthplace of Scotland's national poet, 2 miles south of Ayr...

Located in the historic Ayrshire village of Alloway, this world-famous venue is divided across two easily accessible sites - the award-winning museum on one site and nearby the Victorian Pavilion and Burns Cottage.

The Museum Café, located in the five star museum building which houses the world's definitive Burns collection, is a versatile venue available for exclusive evening events, including drinks receptions, dinners and Burns Suppers.

During spring and summer months, guests can spill out onto the beautiful landscaped gardens dotted with unique and inspiring sculptures.

Set in the grounds of Burns Cottage, overlooking the humble dwelling where Robert Burns was born, the recently refurbished Victorian Pavilion provides a versatile space for meetings, training and team building events.

Burns Cottage

Robert Burns was born in this two roomed, thatched cottage over 250 years ago. This historic building of international significance is available for intimate and exclusive drinks receptions of up to 20. End your day with a dram in the place where it all began and raise a toast to Scotland's national poet!
